Information Items:

3. Conference Results – June 5, 2004

Donna gave a summary of the conference held in Apple Valley on June 4, 2004. There were 27 attendees plus staff. The training was well received and seemed to go smoothly. The evaluations are being tabulated.

4. Future Plans for SB1703

- Participants seem to be happy with training, but would like more intensive workshops on single topics
- Nancy reported that there was only one mentor interest card returned to CDS requesting to be a mentor. This card will be recreated with more information to solicit a better response.
- Anthony suggested that we schedule at least one training in the mountains once a year. Donna added that there should be no problem securing a free location.
- Jane will provide labels for upcoming mailings. Anthony offered to help with mailing costs as needed.
- Several trainings are schedule:
